

Training Checklist

Tier I - Basic (REQUIRED for all volunteers)

DMPH Competencies	MRC Performance Qualifications	Training Tools and Trainings	Completed?
2.0 Demonstrate knowledge of one's expected role(s) in organizational and community response plans activated during a disaster or public health emergency.	Follow policies and procedures related to professional and ethical representation of the MRC	IS-100 Introduction to Incident Command System	Online FEMA Exam
2.0 Demonstrate knowledge of one's expected role(s) in organizational and community response plans activated during a disaster or public health emergency.	Follow procedures to successfully activate, report, and demobilize	MRC 101 On Portage County Health Department Website	Paper Exam on PCHD Website (Mail to HD)
2.0 Demonstrate knowledge of one's expected role(s) in organizational and community response plans activated during a disaster or public health emergency.	Follow procedures to successfully activate, report, and demobilize	HIPAA 101 On Portage County Health Department Website	Paper Exam on PCHD Website (Mail to HD)
6.0 Demonstrate knowledge of surge capacity assets consistent with one's role in organizational, agency, and/or community response plans.	Describe how MRC Serves the Community	IS-26 Guide to Points of Distribution	Online FEMA Exam

Tier I identifies four basic trainings which are appropriate for all volunteers and the completion of Tier I is required within the first 30 days of joining the Medical Reserve Corps.

Tier II – Advanced

DMPH Competencies	MRC Performance Qualifications	Training Tools and Trainings	Completed
8.0 Demonstrate knowledge of public health principles and practices for the management of all ages and populations affected by disasters and public health emergencies.	Identify the modes of action during domestic and international crises	IS-700a National Incident Management System  (NIMS)	Online FEMA Exam

1.0 Demonstrate personal and family preparedness for disasters and public health emergencies.	Protecting yourself and families against all types of hazards	IS-22 Are You Ready? An In-depth Guide to Citizen Preparedness	Online FEMA Exam
7.0 Demonstrate knowledge of principles and practices for the clinical management of all ages and populations affected by disasters and public health emergencies, in accordance with professional scope of practice.	Identify the impact of an event on the behavioral health of the MRC member and their family, team, and community.	Psychological First Aid	Online Exam

Tier II identifies training which is desirable for all volunteers, but not required

Tier III Team Leader

---

DMPH Competencies	MRC Performance Qualifications	Training Tools and Trainings	Completed
8.0 Demonstrate knowledge of public health principles and practices for the management of all ages and populations affected by disasters and public health emergencies.	To identify specific challenges and solutions for developing and communication risk messages to high-risk and at-risk populations.	Risk Communication for High Risk and At-Risk Populations  MRC Train
8.0 Demonstrate knowledge of public health principles and practices for the management of all ages and populations affected by disasters and public health emergencies.	Describes the ways diversity may influence policies, programs, services, and health of a community.  Addresses the diversity of individuals and populations when implementing policies, programs, and services that affect the health of a community.	Culture and Health Literacy: Beyond Access  MRC Train

9.0 Demonstrate knowledge of ethical principles to protect the health and safety of all ages, populations, and communities affected by a disaster or public health emergency.	This course introduces the basics of public health ethics and provides public health professionals with tools and practical examples to practice applying an ethical analysis framework to address ethical challenges that commonly arise for public health practitioners.	Good Decision Making in Real Time: Public Health Ethics for Local Health Officials MRC Train
--	---	---	--

Tier III courses/trainings may be required for deployment during crises and communicating with the public in time of need.

**While the above course listings are requirements of the Portage County MRC, in order to maintain liability protection at the state level, you must complete an approved training every 3 years. CEU's and CPR/First Aid courses ARE considered an approved training. You may also opt to take any course listed on www.ohioresponds.gov under the "training opportunities" tab. Proof of completion should be emailed, mailed, or faxed to the MRC coordinator**